

Little Keswick School, Inc.
“Bringing Students’ Unique Potential to Light”
Special Education Teachers

Now accepting applications for the 2011-2012 school year

Little Keswick School is a small private, therapeutic residential school, serving boys, ages 10-17 years old with learning disabilities and emotional disturbance. Little Keswick School is unique from other special-needs schools as it focuses on treating the whole individual. Little Keswick provides a structured and nurturing environment to children with complex learning and emotional disabilities. The school is located in central Virginia, six miles east of Charlottesville, home of the University of Virginia and near the Blue Ridge Mountains.

We are currently seeking teachers with experience in differentiated instruction at the middle to high school level. Candidates must be licensed and certified in Emotional Disturbance and/or Learning Disabilities. Minimum certification at the graduate level is preferred. Experience in advanced math, chemistry, and physics is a plus. Little Keswick offers a small supportive teaching environment (2:7), with an emphasis on academic success and social-emotional development. Teachers at Little Keswick work in a collaborative environment with communication being an essential skill.

Starting salary with Master’s degree: $46,695.00
